Haven't you ever dreamt of participating in one of the world famous rallies? Being at the wheel of one of those fabulous racing cars, winning the race, and being acclaimed by a huge crowd? Then don't hesitate any longer, load in Grand Prix Rally II.

Get seated, don't forget your seat belt! You're going to have the time of your life...

You can create your own tracks and save them onto a cassette.

The initial circuit is in 10 stages, to be completed in order.

But to achieve this, you will have to go through various meteorological and topographical zones that might affect your car.

Very soon, racing driving will become a doddle for you, darkness, ice, rain, desert and fog will no longer hold any secrets for you. You will need to be very skillful to avoid crashes with your fast competitors...

This game is 100% machine code, the road is in 3-D and surprisingly fast. The graphics make it one of the best games on the market at present.
